- b. Members shall be appointed for a term which shall be concurrent with the term of the member of the Board of Supervisors who appoints them.
- c. If a vacancy occurs prior to the expiration of the appointee's term, such vacancy shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term by an appointee appointed in the same manner as original appointments are made.

SECTION IV. Compensation

All appointments shall be voluntary in nature and appointees shall serve without compensation.

SECTION V. Meeting

The Committee will be a standing Board-appointed advisory committee and all meetings of the Committee will therefore be open to the public and subject to and comply with the Ralph M Brown Act. The Committee shall establish by-laws, which may include meeting location and times to be established in the by-laws.

SECTION V. Duties, Actions, Authorities, Responsibilities of Committee or Individuals

- a. Make reports and recommendations to the Board of Supervisors regarding existing programs, policies, and procedures in alignment with the law for future elections.
- b. Have access to places and non-exempt public records, as allowed under the California law, necessary to implement their delegated duties.
- c. Observe, inspect, and examine elections- records and documents, except those records exempt from inspection and examination under California Government Code sections 7924.00 – 7924.110 or that are otherwise confidential under California law.
- d. May make copies of public records, as allowed under California law, for reporting purposes or make notes based on such records.
- e. Tour and observe Registrar of Voters (ROV) facilities during, before, or after the election period, as authorized under California law.
- f. Ask questions of elections officials and receive timely answers.
- g. Review how election updates are reported to the public.
- h. In-depth review of voter and vote recordkeeping processes, as allowed under California law.
- i. Comply with Observer Guidelines of the County of Shasta, California and any California Secretary of State Election Observations Rights and Responsibilities regulations, as may be amended from time to time.
- j. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this ordinance, no provisions in this ordinance shall authorize, override, usurp, or circumvent any state statute or federal law. In addition, no authority granted to the Citizens Election Advisory Committee, either express or implied, shall impede or interfere with the Election Official in the performance of their duties.

SECTION VI. Effective Date

This ordinance shall take effect and be in full force thirty days after adoption.
